

EXPERIMENTAL FILMS

Program 24

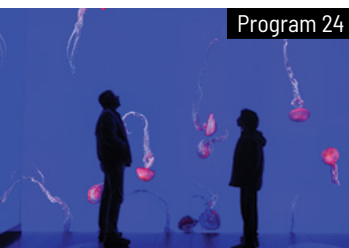

Haruspex (3 min)

A despondent chef decides to use his internal organs as ingredients.

Regional Connection: Director, Xavier, was born in London and graduated from H.B. Beal Secondary School.

Director: Xavier Wehrli

Producer: Xavier Wehrli

Program 24

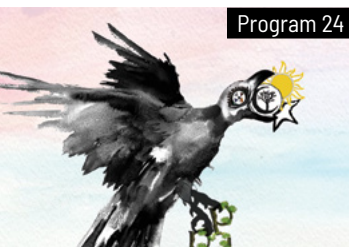

movements³ (7 min)

Commended by festivals in Berlin, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Toronto, movements³ interprets a suite of poems by Sile Englert, Shane Neilson, and Sachiko Murakami.

Regional Connection: The director was born, raised, and matured in London, Ontario; the films were shot in and all creative staff involved currently reside in Southwestern Ontario.

Director: Kevin Andrew Heslop

Producer: Kevin Andrew Heslop

Program 24

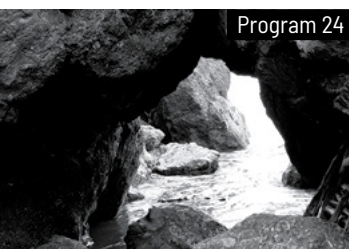

One (9 min)

A sustainable fashion environmental short, inspired by the sacred relationship between indigenous peoples and mother Earth.

Regional Connection: A Collaboration of cultural advisories respectfully honouring the traditional unceded territory of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation of Southwestern Ontario

Director: Nahlia Loren Couto

Producer: Nahlia Loren Couto

Program 24

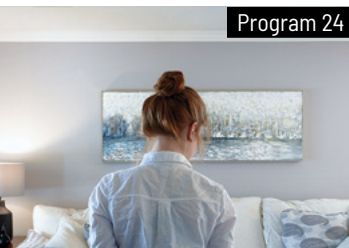

Searching For Godot (7 min)

Faced with a continually empty canvas, an artist desperately tries to look for inspiration.

Regional Connection: Director Nick Maizlin, lives in London and studies at the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry at Western University.

Director: Nick Maizlin

Producer: Nick Maizlin

Program 24

Three Movements (6 min)

three movements. explodes domesticity and IPV through its interpretation of three of the most challenging, intelligent, and unapologetic feminist texts in the language.

Regional Connection: These three micro-shorts were shot in London, where their director was born and raised and their stars currently reside.

Director: Kevin Andrew Heslop

Producer: Kevin Andrew Heslop

For more information go to <https://fcff.ca/films-2022/>